

Mixed Questions - Grades 6

Subject: General | Grade: 6 | Generated: 7/23/2025

Ø=ÜÜ Mixed Worksheet Grade Levels: 6 Number of Questions: 2 Instructions: Answer the following questions. There are two questions. You have 20 minutes to answer them. You can use a calculator or a ruler if you need it. You must show your work for each question. Mark your answers clearly. Question 1 Imagine you are in a small village in Rajasthan during the hot summer. You notice that the water level in a 'baoli' (a traditional stepwell) slowly goes down during the day, and later, you see small clouds forming high in the sky. Which two main processes of the water cycle are most likely responsible for these observations?A. A) Precipitation and CollectionB. B) Evaporation and CondensationC. C) Runoff and TranspirationD. D) Melting and Freezing Question 2 The monsoon season is vital for agriculture and daily life in India, bringing much-needed rain after dry periods. a) Briefly explain how the water cycle helps to bring freshwater back to our rivers, lakes, and even groundwater, ensuring we have water resources. b) Name one traditional or modern method used in India to collect or save rainwater for future use, especially during or after the monsoon.